

Club Code of Conduct / Fair Play Policy

Magor Rugby Football Club
Clwb Rygbi Magwyr

Date: 24/04/2025

1. Introduction

The following elements are to be regarded as the minimum standards necessary to ensure that rugby football in Wales is played by senior players in a manner befitting the national heritage and traditions of the Welsh Game. Coaches, players, and supporters should therefore:

- Display courtesy, friendliness, and sportsmanship to the opposing team and the referee at all times.
- Applaud the opposition for good play.
- Deplore foul play and abusive language.
- Report all serious incidents to the appropriate club body.

Adult players value the camaraderie, competition, and enjoyment of the senior game. Whilst teams should always play with a strong, competitive spirit to achieve success, they must play within the laws of the game and always with respect for their opponents. Coaches and management should focus on fostering a culture of continuous improvement, physical preparation, and tactical skill, ensuring that fierce competitiveness is always balanced with discipline and respect.

2. Our Values

Our values are aligned to those of the Welsh Rugby Union, namely:

- COURAGE: A no compromise, no regrets philosophy - daring to dream.
- HUMOUR: Bringing perspective and a recognition that we do this for the enjoyment.
- INTEGRITY: Doing the right thing - even when no one is looking.
- EXCELLENCE: 'Good enough' isn't good enough. Relentless pursuit of our ambition and a recognition that it's OK to make mistakes to become better.
- FAMILY: Inclusive and welcoming to all - the rugby family. Committed to each other's success.
- SUCCESS: Achieving on and off the pitch - responsible for each other's reputations.
